

Women's Business Development Council

Empowered Women, Empower Women: A Conversation with Fran Pastore

Join the Women's Business Development Council's Founder & CEO, Fran Pastore, for a conversation on the importance of women's entrepreneurship in Connecticut, and learn how women-owned businesses are fueling economic growth today.

A devoted catalyst for women, families and communities, Fran will share her personal journey as an entrepreneur in Connecticut. Leave with tips on what you can do to launch and build your own business. You will have the opportunity to meet WBDC's business advisors.

Tuesday, July 10 • 5:00 PM - 6:30 PM

Public Library of New London • 63 Huntington Street

Pre-Registration Required/No Charge | To register, visit ctwbdc.org/class-listings.

Light refreshments will be served.

Founded in 1997, the Women's Business Development Council provides the training, education and borrowing power necessary for women to launch and grow their businesses. Offices located in New London, Derby and Stamford.

Fran Pastore

*Entrepreneur. National Economic Advisor.
Mentor. Global Advocate.*

For a full list of classes and programs offered, visit www.ctwbdc.org or call 860.574.9246